

MEETING THE PROJECT MANAGEMENT CHALLENGE

2004

Biography

Jay Ress, PMP

Technology Management Associates

Jay Ress, PMP is the founder of two influential companies: Technology Management Associates, a project management consulting company (1992), and TMA Seminars, a Registered Education Provider with the Project Management Institute (PMI). His seminars are regularly sponsored by the Project Management Institute, the Nashville Technology Council, the Association of IT Professionals (AITP), the State of Tennessee, and a national corporate client base.

Mr. Ress has fulfilled the role of project manager on mission-critical projects for RAND, TRW, NEC America, Nortel, Siemens, Titan Systems, Vanderbilt University Medical Center, Compass Bank, and Bell Atlantic, and many others. His background also includes professional experience as a teacher, group leader, martial arts instructor, and mentor. He has published articles on topics in project management, professional sports, and the martial arts, holds a Masters Degree in International Relations from Brandeis University, a black belt in aikido, and is a past recipient of a Fulbright-Hays Research Grant.

NASA Project Management Conference